Have you done your bit towards helping the grammar school boys to market their potatoes? They have disposed of about $8.00 worth but have more to dig. They are good potatoes and are being offered at a price below current retail figures. If the boys are to be encouraged to help with food production, we must be public spirited and patronize them.

Tropico is in a fair way to have plenty of excitement in the course of the next six weeks and will probably resolve itself into a big debating organization to discuss the various issues coming before the voters and their probable effect on the community.

Monday night a petition to which 300 signatures were attached was presented to the City Council asking for an election to vote on the consolidation of Tropico and Glendale.

Rumors of a petition for the consolidation of Tropico with Los Angeles have been current for some time. If that too materializes our election may provide a triology to be voted upon. If all the issues can be consolidated, it will be a saving to the tax payer.

The necessity of the election to vote water bonds is augmented rather than minimized by the possibility of annexation to either Glendale or Los Angeles. In either event we shall require a water distributing system. Mr. Brand would be well pleased to have Tropico join either city before buying his water system as he has reason to feel confident that either municipality would purchase without haggling over the price, though the cost would be assessed against Tropico. He sold the Bairdstown water system to Los Angeles when that district annexed, and he assured the writer Glendale had always stood ready to buy the Tropico water unit. Materials which enter into construction of a water system are now so high that Mr. Brand could reasonably claim more value for the plant than it represented six months ago and in negotiating with either of the municipalities named would probably not consider less than the Railway Commission authorized the Title Company to sell the system for under its reorganization plan, viz. $65,000, in stocks and bonds. Tropico would in that event be obligated to pay $10000 more than it can get the system for now by dealing direct and taking advantage of Mr. Brand's before-the-war offer.

A comparison of the Owens River water with our mountain supply will convince any fastidious water user that we would better keep what we have. With the manufacture of intoxicants cut off,—and such is the present war prospect—we shall all be on the water wagon soon and we need to be particular.

PRINCIPAL KENNEDY RE-ELECTED

About forty interested citizens attended the meeting of the Board of School Trustees last Saturday evening at the Cerritos school.

Mrs. Barker, as clerk, read the minutes of two previous meetings and made a financial statement which showed that expenditures for May for salaries were $1086.25, general expenses $37.52, making a total of $1123.77. She estimated the balance to the credit of the schools at $1547.87 which would meet the expenses of June and leave a considerable sum over for improvements. She spoke of a balance of about $200 to the credit of the kindergarten department and was authorized to transfer it to the general fund.

Mrs. Barker then addressed the audience relative to the re-appointment of Mr. Kennedy as principal, explaining her thorough acquaintance with conditions in the school and the community, based on four years of service as trustee and ten years as a citizen. She told of her investigation of complaints, of her visit to the office of County Superintendent and of her conversation with Deputy Supt. Knepper, "who said Mr. Kennedy was a good man for the place, a good teacher, that the school was in good condition, and he would not advise a change; that he thought if Mr. Kennedy had a chance as principal of this school, he would make a success of it; that he had not had a chance. He said he was recommending Mr. Kennedy to other places and he did not know why he should not recommend him to Tropico."

Mrs. Barker also told of a petition to re-appoint Mr. Kennedy which the board had received and to which were attached 260 names to offset a petition previously filed against him bearing 35 signatures, seventeen of the signers having no children in the school. In view of the indorsement of this petition, and of the county office and in view of her own conviction that the complaints were ill founded, she moved the re-appointment of Mr. Kennedy. President Carmack entertained the motion and called for remarks. Trustee Hibben then made an excellent talk in which he reviwed the situation from the standpoint of a new comer on the Board. He put a series of questions to Mr. Kennedy as to what guarantee of future harmony in the teaching staff he could give if elected. Mr. Kennedy's answers were satisfactory to Mr. Hibben and he announced that he would join the other members of the board in the vote to retain Mr. Kennedy, which called forth warm applause.

The Board also elected the following list of teachers at the salaries named: Anne Curtis $85.00, Hazel Small $70.00, Ruth Morgan $70.00, W. B. Harkness $35.00, Jessie Atwood $60, May Cornwell $90.00, Gladys Hamilton $70.00.

Mrs. Barker reported that it would be necessary to let a contract for school supplies and was authorized to advertise for bids.

Mr. Irving Oliver asked that in view of their high cost, the school supplies be kept in a locked cupboard, also that better order be maintained in halls and basement, and that students bringing lunches be required to remain on the school campus.

As a measure of economy the Board voted to dispense with a special teacher of music.

Mrs. Springer was granted a permit to transfer her little girl to another school.

Mr. Hal Davenport suggested that the Board ask its teachers to reside in Tropico and help fill up vacant houses. He referred to the losses the city had sustained in Los Angeles City employes compelled by the rule of the municipality to reside in that city.

A petition asking for the appointment of Mrs. Searle as janitress was presented and accepted by President Carmack with a promise to give it consideration.

The meeting was prolific in discussion provoked for the most part by the dissatisfied, but it ended in seeming resignation to the will of the majority and a disposition to work together for the betterment of the schools.

FIRE WARNING

The State Council of Defense wishes to have wide publicitw given to warnings against carelessness by which fires may be set which will destroy grain and other food and forage crops. The practice of throwing lighted matches into weeds beside roads or paths is particularly objected to.

BOY SCOUT WORK

The motto of the Boy Scouts is "Be Prepared."

That they are living up to that motto is shown by the adoption of the slogan "Every Scout to feed a Soldier." Some people do not realize what an immense stride will be made by the 300,000 Boy Scouts in this country for more food. Every Scout is working hard to reach the mark which has been set at 2,830,000 Scout gardens by the end of the year.

Scouts in Tropico and in San Fernando valley are doing their part in this great campaign for food. In Los Angeles alone, 3,000,000 square feet of land has already been planted by Scouts.

There are several acres of vacant land in Tropico. The Scouts can not take more of this than they can handle with results, but if more people in this city would plant the vacant lots and back yards they would not only help themselves but would help Tropico to produce her part of food stuffs.

H. W. BENNER,

Assistant Scout Master, Throop Three, Glendale, formerly of Troop One, Tropico.

Robinson Brothers, the transfer and storage people, have just taken possession of their beautiful new building at the corner of Colorado avenue and Brand Boulevard, Glendale. Brick, tile, concrete and steel have made it absolutely fireproof, and as these gentlemen also undertake to protect from moths and vermin, it is a very safe place in which to store belongings. Their equipment includes private rooms to which the owners of goods stored alone have access.

FINE P. T. A. ADDRESS

The meeting of the P. T. A. at the Cerritos school last Friday did not bring out as many mothers as did some previous sessions but the falling off was easily attributable to the large attendance on the school exhibition the day before. Not many busy housewives can afford to spend two afternoons in one week at the school house; but those who were absent missed a treat in the splendid though very simple talk on the foreign women of Los Angeles made by Miss Sue Barnwell, who is quite at home in Tropico as she once taught here.

The preliminary business included the annual statements of officials and committee chairmen. The treasurer, Mrs. Cross, reported a cash balance on hand May 29th of $35.15, which the Association later voted to turn over to a committee to be used for the furnishing of a rest room for the Cerritos school.

Mrs. Gregory, for the Emergency Committee, reported Christmas work in which Mesdames Gaarder, Kennedy and Bacon had assisted; and the audience voted the picture to Mrs. Curtis's room.

By special request Mrs. Hartley Shaw, as an old friend, was given the privilege of introducing Miss Barnwell which she did gracefully and with a tribute of affection.

The speaker explained that the department of the Y. W. C. A. with which she is connected works among the foreign women of the city and is known as "The International Institute." She told of the dangers to which they are exposed through their ignorance and their old world ideas and customs. To illustrate how these customs have been transplanted to the soil of America she described a Russian wedding at which she was a guest where the bride and her friends waited for the wedding procession to appear heralded by a group of men singing and dancing as they came, beating sheep-skin drums, playing flutes and carrying torches. She told how the wedding trousseau was delivered by the representatives of the groom and how the little bride was then and there invested with it, how the shoes were too small, the dress too big, and nothing fitted, how the bride then joined the procession and was borne to the little church where a modern double ring ceremony took place, then resumed the medieval procession to the home of the groom where the marriage festivities were continued on the old world plan.

She told of the speech to 700 Russians in the Los Angeles Colony made by Tolstoi, son of the great novelist, in their own tongue, and of which he said: "You do not perhaps realize what this means; for never before have I spoken to a group of my own countrymen. In my country the police would have dispersed the meeting before I began."

She stated that the Institute does its work through foreign visitors who represent 12 different languages and who call on the girls as soon as they arrive from the old country and find out what they can do to make them comfortable and happy and to find for them employment. The Institute is kept posted in regard to girls enroute for Los Angeles by representatives of the government immigration service. As a branch of the work eight International Friendship clubs have been established in Los Angeles, each with an American leader and a Japanese leader, the purpose being to bring the women of the two nationalities together in friendly relations. At the club meetings, which are held weekly, there is always a lesson in English followed by instruction to help them adjust themselves to modern American life. There they learn how to cook American food, how to use American furniture, how to care for babies, how to shop, and many other things which are well seasoned with the social good time they so much need and enjoy. Miss Barnwell thinks that one great cause of the gulf between the American and the foreigner is that "most Americans try to Americanize the foreigner by proxy." She thinks we need more of these friendsly clubs and of the spirit that inspires them, and this, she says, is what the Woman's Defense Committee is urging California women to take up as a patriotic duty and to help the foreigner to understand his relation to us and to the great world war.

At the close of the address, a vote of thanks for service during the past year was given Mrs. Gaarder who relinquished the chair to Mrs. Ella Richardson. The incoming president announced some of her committees and suggested summer meetings which the Association voted to hold monthly. She also advised the Association to join the Glendale P. T. A. federation, but no action was taken and the meeting adjourned.

CARD OF THANKS

Amy Isabel Peabody cannot express her appreciation of the deep sympathy and kind consideration shown her by the ladies of Glendale and Tropico, Venice and Los Angeles, especially the ladies of the Tropico Thursday Afternoon Club and the Tuesday Afternoon Club of Glendale. She particularly recognizes this great thoughtfulness and kindness with the realization of her short sojourn here in Southern Calpifornia. She was a stranger; but their sympathy was for a sister.

SCHOOL EXHIBITION

Pupils had good reason to be proud and parents puffed up over the exhibit of school work at the Cerritos avenue building last Thursday. It was excellently displayed and the beauty and originality of the decorations in the various rooms called forth much admiration.

The studies in black and white and in colors and the arts and crafts work naturally claimed much attention from visitors. Some of the wash drawings were quite suggestive of Whistler. When left to choose their subjects the children seemed to gravitate naturally to posters of which there were some spirited examples. There was also evidence of considerable interest in nature study displayed in Miss Smart's room; but it was all good and worthy.

GRAMMAR SCHOOL GRADUATION

The Tropico Grammar school will hold its graduating exercises tonight, Thursday evening, June 7th, at Union High School Auditorium in Glendale. Twenty-five boys and girls will say farewell to he old Cerritos avenue school house. Some will seek opportunities in the business world, some will enter high school and be graduated from that to enter a university. The program includes music by the High School Orchestra, by the Boys' and Girls' Chorus, a whistling number by Miss Helen Ward, and vocal selections by Miss Ruth E. Mitchell, who has been teacher of music and dramatic art at the school during the past year. There will also be a play by the graduating class, and a valedictory by Bernice Adam. President Carmack of the Board of School Trustees will present the diplomas.

Attorney Dwight W. Stephenson, 223 North Central avenue, La Crescenta, addressed a joint meeting of the La Canada, La Crescenta and Sunland Improvement Associations on the Federal Farm Loan Act, on Friday evening, June 1st, at the La Crescenta Schoolhouse. Mr. Stephenson has made a special study of this Act, and is forming various National Farm Loan Associations throughout the country.

CLARA WHITNEY HONORED

A farewell dance in honor of Miss Clara Whitney was given by her friends Monday evening at Yeomen Hall on San Fernando Boulevard. About seventy-five couples were guests and made good use of the excellent music furnished by Busch's Orchestra. Miss Whitney has resided with relatives in Tropico for the past two years. Wednesday she left for her home in Butler, Pa.

REGISTRATION

Military registration in Tropico was a very quiet, orderly affair. There was no rioting and no eligibles had to be brought in by the scruff of the neck. Tropico young men are a manly lot who have shown little disposition to shirk their duty. The tally at the different precincts returned the following figures: No. 1, (G. A. R. Hall) 22; No. 2, (Magnolia school) 44; No. 3, (Hunter's Plumbing Shop) 53; No. 4 (North Glendale avenue) 42, or a total of 161.

The Grand Rapids (Michigan) Association will have a picnic at Sycamore Grove June 9th.

More than 1,000 students were enrolled in the 63 different professional, trade, technical and commercial subjects taught by 48 instructors in the Los Angeles Y. M. C. A. schools during the past year, according to a report just issued by that institution. The total attendance of 1067 for the year places the Y. M. C. A. in the same rank with the colleges and universities of California.

The demand for instruction in mining, assaying, automobile construction and repair, wireless telegraphy and accountancy is said to have increased materially. In addition, classes were conducted in salesmanship, advertising, Spanish, public speaking and in grammar and high school grades and commercial branches.

TRIBUTES TO MARGARET R. COLEMAN

Resolutions which embodied eloquent tributes to the memory of Margaret R. Coleman, wife of Earl V. Coleman, which expressed their sense of personal loss and their sympathy with Mr. Coleman, were passed by the Twin City Lodge, Knights of Pythias and by Lahalla Temple, Pythian Sisters No. 122, at their last regular meetings.

THE SOCIETY VAUDEVILLE

The program which Mrs. Pearl Keller, of the Keller School of Dramatic Art and Dancing is putting on at the Palace Grand Theatre in Glendale next Tuesday evening, June 12th, will be the great artistic event of the season. It will far surpass the recital given last year. Fifty pupils, some of whom are quite wonderful, will take part. There will be Russian dancing, a Greek Dance, a Dutch Dance, and one particularly fetching number will be an Egyptian Ballet which will be performed by ten of the smallest pupils. There will be tambourine dancing, Hawaiian Dancing, a Cake Walk, Colonial Dancing. Doris Cook will do a charming Snow Dance in a winter stage setting, and the beautiful Cupid and Butterfly Dance will be executed by Merna Kahler as Cupid and Dorothy Dutton as the Butterfly.

An exceedingly pretty number will be a contrast of old-fashioned and modern ballroom dancing. The stage setting will as nearly as possible reproduce the ballroom of the Keller Dancing school. When the curtain goes up a class of tiny tots four and five years of age will be discovered seated and waiting for the music to begin. When the orchestra gives the signal they will select partners, take their places in the center of the stage and perform the stately, old fashioned minuet. When the music changes the figures will break up and modern one-step will be executed.

Then there will be a grand patriotic finale in which the entire school will take part. There will be twenty-four numbers on the program, all different and each an artistic triumph. No parent and no child in Tropico or Glendale should miss this. Tropico should be proud to possess the Keller School and proud of the talented children who are making it famous.

HONOR TO WHOM HONOR IS DUE

In this manner and through this medium of our press I wish to heartily thank all who took part in our Memorial Sunday and Decoration Day program, helping to make the services the splendid success of which we, as N. P. Banks Post, G. A. R., are very proud. Especially do I wish to thank Mrs. Winona Crawford, chairman of the Executive Committee, W. R. C., who with untiring energy and loving patriotism left no stone unturned to make our efforts a complete success.

DON'T MAKE ENEMIES.

A man cannot afford to have an enemy, even a humble enemy. The shabby fellow who storms your office today may be a power in the community next year. Therefore speak to him gently; send him away with a smile. Never affect a contemptuous manner. That is the way of the fool. A polite word costs nothing. It may turn out to be a good investment, and it will never make an enemy.

When Golf Is Wearisome.

It might be well for golf "bugs" to read this story and then indulge in a little introspection to see if the shoe fits.

An enthusiastic young golfer was introduced to a beautiful girl, and almost immediately he launched on an eloquent dissertation on links, brassies, putters and scores.

"The only objection I have to golf," remarked the beautiful girl at length, "is that at times it becomes just a little bit wearisome."

"Why, Miss Jones," exclaimed the young man, with a look of surprise, "I understood you to say that you didn't play golf!"

"I don't."—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Health In Walking Downstairs.

Not so long ago men walked briskly for a mile or two, two or three times a day or oftener, and thought nothing of it. Now when we want to go a mile we ride. The elevator has taken away the exercise for the feet that used to be obtained in going up and coming down the stairs. So far as it is of use in facilitating ascent in the high buildings it is an advantage. It would be probably much better, however, if it were not used quite so much for coming down and if people took advantage of the descent to strengthen important leg muscles and dissipate certain tendencies to accumulation of fat where it is most disfiguring.—New York Independent.

PROCEEDINGS OF BOARD OF TRUSTEES

When the Board was called to order Monday night all members were present and Mr. A. J. Van Wie was in the chair of the City Clerk. After the reading by him of the minutes of the previous meeting, which were approved, several communications were read.

Griswold Well

One from the Department of Public Works, Los Angeles, stated that it had been determined in a suit between the City of Los Angeles and various land owners that such underflow as feeds the Griswold Well at San Fernando Boulevard and Grace Court is part of the waters of Los Angeles River and therefore subject to the paramount right of Los Angeles, hence under any transfer to the City of Tropico it will continue to be subject to the paramount rights of Los Angeles.

Railroad Rates

A communication from Charles Dietrich, Secretary of the Railway Commission, advised of a hearing to be granted the railroads in Los Angeles June 21st on the question of allowing a fifteen per cent increase of freight rates, and invited all shippers to attend and participate in the hearing. The two communications were ordered placed on file.

Electric Betterment

The Pacific Light and Power Company's report of additions and betterments for May was presented and showed the present estimated value of the system to be $39,674.23. Ordered placed on file.

Fire Works Permit

Under the call for oral communications Berna Martin asked for and was granted a permit to sell fire works, not including toy pistols and caps, at 215 North San Fernando Road from June 25th to July 4th.

Siren Contract

Under call for official reports, City Attorney Shaw submitted a draft of an agreement between the City of Tropico and the Federal Siren Company for a temporary installation and test of its siren for thirty days, the city to pay cost of freight on same from Chicago to Tropico, the cost of temporary connection and disconnection and in case of purchase the city to pay $210 f. o. b. Chicago and also pay cost of permanent installation. The agreement was approved by the Board and President Peters was authorized to sign same on behalf of the city.

Water Bond Election

The draft of an ordinance prepared by City Attorney Shaw calling an election to vote bonds for the purpose of acquiring a water system was submitted, and read by the clerk. It called for bonds in the sum of $55,000 and for two voting precincts. The 30 day interval provided for in the original resolution not having elapsed, no action was taken.

Street Bond

The City Attorney also asked for action on the street improvement bond held by the city against Lot A in Tract 7 owned by Mr. Young, on which payments are delinquent. On motion of Seal seconded by Henry, he was instructed to proceed with the collection of the bond.

Patriotic Band Music

President Peters reported that the Tropico Band had tendered its services to the City Trustees and would play patriotic music at points to be designated Tuesday evening, June 5th.

The City Marshal asked for instructions relative to permits for the sale of fireworks. He was told they would be granted from June 25th to July 4th.

Pound Ordinance

The Pound Ordinance which had been referred to Marshal Gould to determine the fees to be specified therein, was given its first reading. The schedule of fees in the Los Angeles County Ordinance was followed making a charge of $1.00 for the taking up of an animal or fowl and for feeding and maintenance of same 50c per day for the larger animals and 30 per day for dogs, chickens, etc.

Extra Deputies

The Marshal reported he had secured two extra deputies for service June 5th.

Club Room Privileges

President Peters reported a request from the Thursday Afternoon Club for permission to use the City Hall as a meeting place during the coming year, which request was granted by unanimous vote.

Sidewalk Displays

President also reported a request from a merchant on San Fernando Boulevard for a permit to display agricultural wares on the sidewalk in front of his place of business. Some debate followed as to whether such permit would be in conflict with the sign and billboard ordinance. It was the concensus of opinion that the sign ordinance would not apply. No action was taken.

Tower Removal Etc.

On motion of Veselich the City Clerk was instructed to address a communication to officials of the Southern Pacific Road asking what action had been taken relative to paving their right of way and removal of tower.

Petition for Consolidation

Mr. Todd claimed the recognition of the chair and then introduced Mrs. Adelaide Imler who on behalf of quite a delegation of citizens addressed the Council and presented a petition bearing 300 signatures asking for the calling of an election to vote upon the consolidation of Tropico and Glendale.

The petition was aecepted by the Council and referred to the City Clerk for verification and report.

Reports

The monthly statements of officials were then read by the Clerk, the City Recorder reporting $5.00 collected in fines during May; City Marshal $66.00 collected on business licenses; Building Inspector Fairfield $20.17 for May inspection fees. On motion of Trustee Alspach reports were ordered filed.

He Wasn't "Jim" Riley.

An anecdote of James Whitcomb Riley told by Booth Tarkington in Collier's Weekly:

"He would sing an old time darky song to the guitar and finish it by dancing an intricate little step; he would cut all manner of droll capers in mimicry; he was the very liveliest soul ever known and the neighborliest. But those who understood him best never called him Jim unless they were related to him or knew themselves part of his most intimate life."
